

Mammals

26 mammals have been recorded in Horsh Edden Nature Reserve of which 10 are nationally rare species viz.

Lesser
White Toothed Shrew Crocidura suaveolens
European
Free-tailed bat *Tadarida teniotis
Lesser
Mouse-eared bat *Myotis blythi omari
Wolf
Canis lupus pallipes
Weasel
Mustela nivalis

Dryomys nitedula phrygius

A total of 11 of the mammals are considered globally threatened, including four of the above nationally rare species.

Insects & Butterflies

In spring, insects are numerous and it is such a pleasure to watch the myriad of butterflies.